

Security Manager

Department/Group
Development

Position Type
Full-time

Location
Prague

Application Accepted by
HR

Reporting to
VP, Engineering

E-mail
jobs@socialbakers.com

About Socialbakers

With more than 300 employees located in 11 offices throughout the world, Socialbakers is the fastest growing social media and digital analytics company globally with customers in 100 countries representing every continent.

Defined by rapid product innovation and relentless dedication to customer success, Socialbakers has close connections with key social and digital companies like Facebook, Twitter and Google. Socialbakers is the only global solution that allows brands to measure, compare, and contrast the success of their social media campaigns with competitive intelligence. Recognizing the utility of Socialbakers' products, Facebook has awarded Socialbakers 3 Preferred Marketing Developer badges.

Job Description

Key Responsibilities

- > Defining, implementing and maintaining information security policies, strategies, procedures
- > Designing, developing and/or recommending security systems solutions that will ensure data and systems are protected
- > Participating in internal and external audits and providing direction as to how to remediate action items related to information security
- > Being responsible for overall compliance with business related regulations

- › Evaluating new and emerging security products and technologies
- › Providing information regarding the negative impact on the business caused by theft, destruction, alteration or denial of access to information
- › Helping answering of security related questions by customers
- › Ensuring that internal practices are being performed in accordance with policies and procedures and security best practices

Skills/Qualifications

- › Deep knowledge of server and application security
- › Knowledge of security standards
- › Experience with information security internal & external audits
- › Proven successful track record
- › Advanced level of English
- › Good communication skills and ability to communicate at different levels of seniority
- › Good presentation skills and ability to represent company towards external clients
- › Decisiveness and accountability
- › Technical Understanding
- › Analyzing information and problem solving
- › High reliability and ability to deliver on deadlines
- › Responding fast to issues and company needs and ability to work under stress
- › Willingness to learn new skills and gain new knowledge and experience

What we offer

- › Modern technologies and work environment
- › Free refreshments in the office (fruit, coffee, muesli, cookies, vegetable etc.)
- › Generous vacation policy
- › Competitive salary